notes and discussion

Task: Information graphics reveal the hidden, explain the complex and illuminate the obscure. Constructing visual representation entails filtering the information, establishing relationships, discerning patterns and representing them in a manner that enables a consumer of that information construct meaningful knowledge. The Poynter Institute showcased infographics of visual journalists and the way how they did: developing the idea, research, and the solution. Please, have a closer look and analyze the following infographics

1. Baghdad Red Zone \(The Charlotte Observer\)
